

TRAJECTOR

Congratulations on taking the first step to pursue the VA disability benefits for which you medically, legally, and ethically qualify! We've helped tens of thousands of Veterans just like you.

Here is what to expect from us, along with what we need from you to help navigate your journey.

Our Commitments to You

✓ No obligation evaluation

A free comprehensive, no obligation initial review of your medical conditions and service records to establish personalized supporting medical evidence you can use no matter how you choose to pursue your benefits.

✓ Risk-free and no upfront cost services

Our services will not cost you anything unless an increase is granted in your disability compensation.

✓ Comprehensive assessment of the VA disability benefits you may qualify for

Extensive evaluation of your medical evidence and the various symptoms you suffer from to help you understand the potential VA disabilities you may qualify for.

✓ Easy and convenient access to your VA history

Collection of your historical claims, current VA disability rating, benefits summary, verification, and payment history which will help you understand the evidence the VA will be relying on and help to check for any discrepancies.

✓ VA-ready evidence development

Based on the information you provide us, we will generate medical evidence that supports your claim and connects your symptoms to your military service.

✓ Service Agreement that clearly explains both parties' responsibilities

No hidden fees! Everything is clearly laid out in our agreement and we are always here if you have additional questions.

✓ A Battle Buddy to guide the way

This person will be your primary point of contact and navigator as we develop medical evidence supporting your benefits journey.

✓ Education about your C&P exam

Know what to expect from a compensation and pension (C&P) exam so you feel more confident and comfortable in speaking about your health symptoms.

✓ Rating Decision Letters comprehensive review

A thorough review of your Rating Decision Letters to ensure the VA properly factored in all the medical evidence and assigned the appropriate effective date and correct rating percentage.

Your Commitments to Us

☐ Provide your medical history

A time commitment to complete our screening to uncover the disability benefits you may qualify for.

☐ Execute a Veteran Information Access Agreement

A signed Veteran Information Access Agreement will enable us to conveniently collect important documents pertaining to your service and VA history. You may also secure your individual historical documents from VA.gov and provide them to us.

☐ Keep us informed and notify us of updates

Share with us new information throughout your journey including deadlines, claim decisions, pay changes, appeal dates, etc. Additionally, the VA may communicate with you in writing for various reasons. It is important that you notify us so that we can ensure the VA has everything required to review your claim.

☐ Complete questionnaires and provide documents

This information will help us to understand your claims and provide additional details that may support our medical evidence, such as your current symptoms or a sleep study. It is important that you verify and sign documents, which will aid in identifying how your disability affects your daily life.

☐ Sign a Service Agreement

Our formal contract outlines our services and fee structure.

☐ Engage with and respond to your Battle Buddy

Your Battle Buddy will be your main point of contact throughout your journey with us and will keep our process on track.

☐ Upload or mail your claim

Only YOU can file your claim! Once you have received our medical evidence, you will need to follow the e-file or mail-in instructions we provide to you.

☐ Learn about and attend your C&P exam(s)

Provide us with the dates and attend all of your scheduled C&P exams.

☐ Submit Rating Decision Letters

Rating Decision Letters list the evidence, decision and reason the VA used to decide on your claim. We will request them each time the VA decides on your claim so we can review them to ensure you are not short-changed!

☐ Establish payment preferences

When an increase is granted as a result of our services, you will work with the team to review the options available for paying your invoice.
